Dear Families

Year 10 Spring Report

We are writing to let you know that from 11am on Friday 17 March 2023, your child's Spring report is ready for you to view on Go4Schools.

The main purpose of the PREs is to give us an accurate understanding of where we need to focus our resources and interventions. The PREs will also provide invaluable information to our students so that they can look to plug any gaps in learning.

Effort

This will give you an idea of how hard your son/daughter is working. I cannot over-emphasise just how important it is that students put in as much effort as they can with their studies. Hard work really does pay off and every year we see that the most successful students, those who meet and exceed their targets, are those who put all that they can into their studies. The goal for each student should really be to achieve 5's for effort grades in all of their subjects.

Effort	Description
1	Very little effort shown in lessons. Regularly off-task. Behaviour may disrupt own and others learning. Shows very little motivation. Very poor attitude to learning
2	Some effort is shown in lessons, but this is inconsistent and there is behaviour that sometimes disrupts own or others learning. A better attitude to learning is required.
3	Appropriate effort is being shown in lessons. Behaviour is positive and motivation and attitude to learning is at an acceptable level.
4	Good effort, behaviour, motivation and attitude are shown in lessons.
5	Excellent effort in every lesson. Strives to carry out tasks to the very best of their ability. Excellent behaviour, motivation and attitude to learning.

Target

This is the target grade for the end of Yr11. It is a long-range target based upon the results of the Year 6 Key Stage 2 tests. We regularly review all the targets.

PPG (Professional Predicted Grade)

This is the grade that your child's teacher has predicted they will achieve at the end of Yr11 if they continue to progress as they currently are.
